

Privacy Policy

Your personal information will:

- Only be used for its intended purpose
- Never be sold or bartered to anyone
- Never be given to advertisers
- Not be given to law-enforcement or government unless proper legal procedures have been followed

We may collect your IP address when you use our site to protect ourselves against Internet attack or hack attempts. We also collect personal information about you when you purchase goods or services from us to enable us to provide you with those goods and services.

We may also collect information about you when you register as a member or to use our Student Learning Portal and E-Learning programs, to enable us to provide you with access to certain features, such as the ability to access learning content online, to post to the forums and to view content restricted to training course participants.

We will ONLY use the information we have collected about you to provide you with the information, site access or services you requested.

If you have received Government subsidy for training, you are required to sign a consent form for use of your information by the Department of Further Education, Employment, Science and Training, for quality purposes.

We will never sell your information and we will not provide any information we may have collected about you to ANYONE else unless we are absolutely required to do so by a court of law having legal jurisdiction over us.
